Dear Mr. Armstrong:

Please be advised that as of July 23, 2010, I, John L. Billings will no longer be an associate attorney with the law firm of Wilson & Associates, P.L.L.C. By his signature on this letter, Mr. Roan is agreeing to the substitution of counsel in the cases.

If you need further information or have any questions, please contact me at the number set forth above. Thank you in advance for your assistance and cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

John L. Billings (BPR#025268)

ORDER

Attorney John L. Billings has submitted a letter to the Clerk of the Court advising that he is no longer an associate attorney with the firm of Wilson & Associates, P.L.L.C., and during his tenure with said law firm he filed notice of appearances, motions for stay relief, and other pleadings on behalf of creditors in numerous cases. The letter further states John R. Roan, an associate attorney with the firm of Wilson & Associates, P.L.L.C., should be substituted as counsel of record in all cases in which Mr. Billings was listed as counsel of record through July 23, 2010. Mr. Roan has also stated in the letter that he agrees to be substituted as counsel of record in the aforesaid cases.
